OUTLINES.

The battle between mutin[illegible] loyal Russian troops at Sveabo[illegible] fortresses continued yesterday and there was heavy cannonading, with the warships participating; there are wild rumors at St. Petersburg that five warships have mutinied and are probably assisting the revolutionaries; another rumor is that the mutineers have surrendered.——The New York Democratic convention will meet in Buffalo September 25th and members of the State committee declare that it will nominate Hearst for Governor.——The Liberals are planning a demonstration in St. Petersburg and Moscow for the burial of one of the leaders, assassinated by the "Black Hundred," who are taking a life for every one taken by the Terrorists.——At Bessemer City, Gaston county, N. C., yesterday morning Wm. Brown, a bridegroom of an hour, was shot and killed while he and his bride were waiting to take a train, the slayer being John M. Kincaid, brother of a girl whom Brown is said to have deceived.——The Interstate Commerce Commission yesterday informed the railroad representatives that the commission has no discretion in suspending any of the provisions of the new rate law, as requested by the railroads because they cannot comply with the law by the time it goes into effect, August 30th.——In the Hartje divorce case at Pittsburg yesterday, a woman pointed out Hartje and gave testimony that shows that he perjured himself in denying that he knew the blonde woman who figures in the case; the detectives who testified that they stole the alleged incriminating letters of Mrs. Hartje were arrested yesterday.——At the investigation of the charge that officers of the Southern Cotton Association gambled in futures, it was shown in Atlanta yesterday that Secretary Cheatham bought futures for two friends.——New York Markets: Money on call easy, 2 to 2½ per cent., ruling rate 2¼, closing bid and offered at 2¼; spot cotton steady, 10.90; flour dull and barely steady; wheat easy, No. 2 red 80¼ elevator; corn easy, No. 2 55½; oats easy; turpentine steady; rosin steady, strained, common to good, $3.90 to $4.00.

It was Dr. Carl Beck who says a man can get along without a stomach. Maybe so. Dock, but men would rather find out how to make their stomach get along without them.

Remarks the Chattanooga Times: "The stand-patters are calling for a dollar chip in." But it's a shame to take the money from the people and then stand pat for the trusts.

If some men can't get a political office inside the Democratic party they will run the risk of breaking into the Republican party and taking chances with the pie brigade.

Leading the simple life—the man who believes that the Republican Congressional campaign committee is depending on dollar subscriptions to run the campaign.

A company has been organized to manufacture fish bait. New York speculators, however, will buy no such bait, as they can catch all the suckers they want in the old Wall Street way.

This is about the time of the year when the ward heelers in the big cities go to the Republican manipulators of the campaign fund and tell them as how they can carry their ward with money a plenty to spend

Uncle Joe Cannon, Speaker of the House, has been a guest of John W. Gates. After enjoying his hospitality, it is not supposed that Uncle Joe would let Congress do anything to give Gates a jar.

It tickles Roosevelt to publicly contribute a dollar to the Republican campaign fund. How much more pleasure will it afford him to tell the campaign chairman to call around and get more on the side, if it is needed to carry the election."

Secretary Wilson is sending out a guarantee that he can stand for the purity and cleanliness of packing house products under his plan of carrying out the new inspection law. Please excuse us, but who is going to stand for Secretary Wilson?

Great is publicity! The insurance officials condemned their rascality when it was exposed. The railroads quit rebating when the light was turned on. The eRpublican campaign committee got virtuous enough to take dollar bills for campaign subscriptions after the people found out that the previous plan was to mulct corporations from $25,000 to $50,000 to corrupt elections.

POLITICAL GOSSIP

Interesting Rumor With Respect to Shrievalty Contest in New Hanover.

MEETING HELD LAST NIGHT

Developments Expected Later—Mr. H. E. Bonitz Denies a Rumor—Race For State Senate May be Between the Parties.

A most interesting report was going the rounds yesterday in regard to the race for the shrievalty in this county. This was to the effect that the candidates were getting together, or at least that a part of them were listening to influences that were being brought to bear to give Mr. S. P. Cowan the field for that important office while others were to be provided with something "equally as good." Justice John J. Furlong was asked about the matter and denied that he was out of the race ,supplementing the denial with the statement that he was much encouraged with the outlook and had no inducement to quit the field. Others were reported in the same mood. It is known, however, that there is something in the air and that friends of several of the candidates were in conference last night. With what result is not known. Some interesting announcements are expected within a few days.

The local political situation is enlivening up to some exient now that the Congressional contest is no more and the "curb-stone prophets" are in high feather. Mr. H. E. Bonitz denied yesterday that he would be a candidate for the Legislature as had been currently reported on the streets. This leaves the field so far as is known to Col. George L. Morton. It appears now that George H. Belamy, of Brunswick, will have a clear field for the State Senate, the opposition in this county being apparently silenced. There is a rumor that Mr. J. W. Brooks, of this city, will run for the State Senate on the Republican ticket and being a former Brunswick county man, would no doubt make a good race. However, nothing official has been learned in this regard. For the other offices for which there are more than one candidate there is a spirited, but friendly rivalry and all sorts of conjectures are being made.

The primaries will be held September 19th.

ORTON HOUSE THEFT.

Wallace Johnson, Escaped Convict, Bound Over Yesterday.

Wallace Johnson, the fugitive negro convict, who escaped Monday from the county stockade and the same night entered the kitchin and store room of The Orton, where he formerly worked as a scullion, was given preliminary trial yesterday at noon before the Mayor and bound to Superior Court under bond of $50 which he could not furnish and was committed to jail. In the meantime he will be sent back to the convict camp to complete three months of a twelve months term which he was serving for larceny committed about a year ago. Johnson was arrested Tuesday night at the house of a negro woman by Officer Charlie Shepard, who was on the lookout for the thief. Johnson had carried a set of carving knives, a cleaver and other goods which he had stolen from the kitchen and store room of The Orton to the house of the colored woman and had returned for them when he was arrested.

An error was made yesterday in giving the name of the negro Johnson. It was stated that it was Henry McGhee, who had carried the goods to the house of the woman, when it was McGhee from whom the articles were stolen. McGhee has been a cook at The Orton for ten years or more and is trustworthy and above reproach. It is regretted that the error was made. It was largely through him that the negro Johnson was brought to justice. Entrance to the hotel was gained by means of the skylight to the kitchen, Johnson having let himself down in the place by means of ropes that were used by some workmen on the new annex being built to The Orton.

DEFIED THE GUARD

Negro Convict on Scott's Hill Road Camp Made to Drop Uplifted Knife By Well Directed Bullet From Officer's Revolver.

Meagre particulars of the shooting of a convict at the county camp on the Market street road near Scott's Hill, reached the city yesterday. From what Dr. C. D. Bell, who went to dress the wound of the prisoner, could learn yesterday afternoon, one of the convicts, an unruly negro, refused to come out of the cage, when ordered to do so and go to work yesterday morning. The guard used persuasive methods as far as possible but the negro would not budge and when the officer attempted to bring him out, the prisoner drew a long knife over his shoulder and ordered the guard back. The negro was in the act of stabbing the guard when he drew his pistol and shot the negro in the forearm of the hand which held the pistol. The bones of the arm being shattered, the convict, of course, dropped the knife and it was taken away from him by the men in charge of the camp.

Dr. W. D. McMillan, the county superintendent of health, was too unwell to make the trip and Dr. Bell went in his stead. He found the wound a severe one but not serious.

MR. R. C. KIMBROUGH DEAD.

Mr. R. C. Kimbrough a well known young linotype operator of this city who came to Wilmington last March a year ago to take a position on the Morning Star and who was held in the very highest esteem by all in the circle of his acquaintance, passed away last night at 8:30 o'clock at his home, No. 116 North Third street, after an illness of six weeks with acute heart trouble. Although his condition had been very critical for several days and his death was not entirely unexpected, it came as a sad blow to family and friends.

Mr. Kimbrough was a native of Ashland, Va., but had spent most of his life since attaining his majority in Richmond and Norfolk, where he held positions on the leading papers of those cities. He was in the 26th year of his age. There are left to mourn his loss, a devoted young wife, a little son, three months old and his mother, Mrs. B. E. Kimbrough, all of whom were at his bedside when he passed away. A brother-in-law, Mr. Holland Chick, of Burkville, Va., was also with him. The bereaved ones have the tenderest sympathy of many friends in their deep bereavement.

The remains of Mr. Kimbrough will be taken on the evening train to-day to his former home in Virginia for interment, accompanied by the sorrowing wife and Mr. Chick. The funeral services will be conducted there.

BACK FROM ENCAMPMENT.

Lack of Appropriation For Full Ten Day's Pay.

The Second and Third regiments of the North Carolina National Guard in camp at Morehead City will be home to-morrow or sooner. At the last minute, according to reports, it was found that the National appropriation for the encampment would only last for eight days whereas the order was for a ten days' camp. This condition of affairs seems to have been discovered Tuesday and an effort was made by several of the companies to get home yesterday, but the railroads, notably the Atlantic Coast Line, found that it would be impossible to move the troops sooner than they had contracted to do so, and the effect of this will probably be that the boys must remain in camp two days without pay. The W. L. I. is expected back to-morrow afternoon, unless arrangements are made to move them sooner.

THE TRIAL OF TOM PIVER.

Prosecutor Failed to Appear the Defendant was Recognized.

In the police court yesterday the case of young Tom Piver charged with the robbery of W. H .Gore, a Brunswick county man, was called for trial but the prosecutor had left the city and there was no one to prosecute the charge. Piver was represented by Herbert McClammy, Esq., who moved to dismiss, but inasmuch as the charge was one of more than the ordinary consequence, the Mayor stated that he would recognize Piver until the prosecutor could be heard from. It is understood that Mr. Gore has gone to his home at Shallotte, Brunswick county, and that he will probably not push the case against young Piver.

AFTERNOON WEDDING

THE CEREMONY YESTERDAY

Pretty Service at Home of Bride's Father on Chesnut Street—Brief Reception and Honeymoon at Home of Groom's Parents.

A pretty afternoon wedding at two o'clock yesterday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents, No. 609 Chesnut street, joined in marriage Miss Josephine Bell Hale, the attractive daughter of Rev. Fred. D. Hale, D. D., pastor of the First Baptist church, of this city, and Mr. Dudley Davis Lennon, a prominent young business man of Wilmington. Only relatives of the parties to the marriage vow and a few very intimate friends were present, conforming to the wishes of both bride and groom but the wedding is spoken of as one of the prettiest witnessed in Wilmington in some time.

The parlor of the residence was very attractively decorated with ferns, potted plants and cut flowers of different varieties, a color scheme of green and white being carried out very prettily, the execution being under the direction of Mrs. Owen D. Thomas, of Kentucky, a friend of the bride who came for the wedding. Promptly at the hour appointed for the service, a wedding march skilfully rendered by Miss Carrie Johnson, of Kentucky, heralded the approach of the party and as the strains died out, there was a graceful ensemble at the altar where the solemn words were spoken that made the young people man and wife, the officiating minister having been Dr. Hale, father of the bride. There were only two attendants, Miss Sue Hale, sister of the bride, maid of honor, and Mr. E. W. Fonvielle, a friend of the groom, best man. The bride was handsomely attired in a traveling suit of grey and was very pretty as a bride. The gentleman attendants were in the conventional black afternoon attire.

After the ceremony, a brief reception was held where Mr. and Mrs. Lennon were the recipients of many happy felicitations and on the afternoon eSaboard Air Line they left for the old home of the groom's parents at Allenton, N. C., to spend their honeymoon. They willl return to the city on August 13th and will be at home to friends at No. 16 North Front street.

The bride is a very charming young woman of this city and has many admirers. She is prominent in the work of the church and is much loved for her amiable disposition and many accomplishments. The groom has been a resident of Wilmington for some years and is prominent in business circles on the wharf, being connected with the large wholesale grocery house of the D. L. Gore Company. He has many friends who will congratulate him upon winning the heart and hand of one so fair.

The Cooper Family.

The Charleston News and Courier of Tuesday prints a group half-tone photograph of the family of Mr. Noah Bryant Cooper, of Mullins, S. C., father of Mr. W. B. Cooper, of this city, who is one of the group. The occasion is the family reunion at the old home near Mullins a descriptive article by a staff correspondent of the News and Courier, accompanying the picture. All of the eleven grown sons and daughters have reached prominence in this life and the home-coming this week is spoken of as being a most pleasant occasion for all concerned.

Western Union Renews Lease.

It is announced that the Western Union Telegraph Company has abandoned the idea of building an office of its own in this city and has renewed its lease with the Wilmington Lodge of Elks for the occupancy of its present quarters for a term of five years. The objection was to paying an advance in rental predicated upon the recent rapid appreciation of real estate values.

The Columbia Excursion.

Knight's excursion to Columbia yesterday took about 500 Wilmington people to the South Carolina capital. About three-fourths of the excursionists were colored. The train will leave Columbia to-night at 9 o'clock and will arrive here on the return to-morrow morning.

CORPORATE VALUES

Assessments by Commission in This State—Raleigh Workmen on Strike. Fire at Insane Asylum—Habeas Corpus Proceeding Heard.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., August 1.—In a habeas corpus hearing last night before Chief Justice Clark of the Supreme Court the judge declined to admit to bail Everett Spence, the young farmer who shot to death Walter Chavis, colored, in front of the Holiness meeting house in the eastern section of the city last Wednesday night. The evidence tended to show that Spence and his companions were drunk and were avowedly out for the purpose of painting East Raleigh red. Everett Spence is only seventeen years old while two of his companions were well past middle age. These men claim that the negroes were attacking them when the negro was shot.

The Coporation Commission announces that its work of revising the tax valuation of railroad, telegraph, telephone and kindred corporations in the State has resulted in a general increase of $677,215, the increase being from $75,373,333 last year to $76,050,548 this year. The increase has been purely in cases where extensions and improvements have been made. This is not a year under the statute for a general re-valuation required every four years. The detailed statement of the assesments just made as follows:

Atlantic Coast Line, $24,545,014; Seaboard Air Line, $12,500,000; Southern Railway (owned lines), $14,735,250; Southern Railway (leased lines), $11,739,689; Miscellaneous roads, $6,648,408. Total valuation of railroads, $70,077,361. Telegraph companies, $1,016,025; telephone companies, $938,956.96; Southern Express Co., $402,109; Pullman Company, $176,906.25; electric light and gas companies, $808,084; street railway companies, $1,749,650; water works companies, $547,670; steamboat companies, $142,259; bridge and canal companies, $80,100; refrigerator companies, $111,425. Total, $5,973,187.21. The grand total is $76,050,548.21.

The members of the Raleigh carpenters' and plasters' unions went out on a strike this morning in a demand from the contractors for ten hours pay for nine hours work. The trouble has been brewing for several months and August 1 had been fixed as the date by which the contractors must accept the ultimatum of the workmen. About fifty-five carpenters and twenty-five plasterers are out. The contractors say they have arranged to have all the workmen they need on old terms in a very few days. They have signed a binding obligation to stick out against the demands of the strikers.

Fire did about $1,000 damage this morning in the laundry of the State Hospital for the Insane here. It started from a defective flue in the laundry. The fire extinguishers and other fire-fighting equipment proved ample to cope with the flames. There was no excitement among the patients.

MARRIED AT DELGADO.

Miss Maude Jordan Becomes Bride of Mr. Coley.

Last night at 8 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr and Mrs. J. A. Jordan of Delgado, a pretty wedding ceremony joined in marriage Miss Maude Jordan and Mr. Samuel Coley, both prominent young people of the village. The ceremony was performed by Justice G. W. Bornemann in the presence of a large asemblage of friends who tendered happiest congratulations after the wedding, an elegant reception having been given in their honor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jordan. A number of handsome presents were received not only from friends in the village but from those in Wilmington, where Mr. and Mrs. Coley are well known.

ARMOUR CONTRACT

BIG PLANT AT CHADBOURN

Will Build Factory of Seventy-Ton Capacity With Large Storage There—Large Investment By Home Enterprise.

It was officially announced yesterday that the Independent Ice Company of this city, had just closed or had renewed its contract with the Armour Car Lines, of Chicago, for the refrigeration of all its cars in this territory for the vegetable and strawberry business for a term of years, the number of which was not stated. Coincident with the announcement was the further official statement that the Independent Ice Company will at once begin the construction of a seventy-ton ice plant at Chadbourn, completing the same and having it in running operation by January the first of the new year. Under the contract and the Independent Ice Company's purpose to build a factory at Chadbourn, the strawberry growers in the Chadbourn belt may be assured that there will be in the future no cause for complaint of improper or inadequate icing of cars, for the plant contemplates not only the present but the future neeeds of the already large and growing industry there.

The factory will be modern and complete in every respect and will involve an outlay of $70,000. There will also be established at Chadbourn the latest improved refrigerator storage of 7,000 tons capacity in addition to the icing station of 11,000 tons capacity already there. The added storage facilities will cost $10,000 besides the amount named above. All the initial icing will be done at Chadbourn instead of Wilmington as heretofore but in cases of emergency, the contract provides for 3,000 tons additional from the Wilmington plant, if needed. Work on the new factory will begin at once, the first step being the sinking of a 12-inch tubular well to a depth of 500 feet or more.

The Independent Ice Company also closed the contract with the Armour people for the icing of the cars on the W. & W. road, both as to the icing station along the line and the initial icing here. Between six and eight thousand tons will be required for this part of the contract alone.

With the construction of the Chadbourn plant, the Independent Ice Company will have over $200,000 invested in ice factory properties in Wilmington and Chadbourn, the old Worth factory recently having been taken over by the Independent people from R. W. Wallace, trustee, who made the purchase from Mr. Worth. It is well equipped to handle the large demands upon it under the terms of the new contract and growers may confidently expect the very best of service in this regard. The contract for the refrigeration recently expired and negotiations with the Armour people in Chicago have been under way for some time. The closing of the contract yesterday finally disposes of the matter, and the arrangements are already under way for the new factory, which will be one of the largest in this section.

WHITE LABOR IN THE SOUTH.

"Our Southern friends will remember that The Post has not exhibited the slightest enthusiasm in connection with the proposed importation into that part of the country of European laborers. We have been at no trouble to understand the anxiety of the land and water transportation companies in this regard. Nor are we at the smallest loss to realize the attitude of miners and manufacturers. It is entirely natural that the railroad and steamship people should seek the job of carrying these expected thousands. They are in business for exactly such purposes. Similarly, the mine and factory operators want cheap labor, and are willing to pay for it. The Post, however, has always felt that any considerable access of this particular brand of humanity would prove unwelcome and inpurious, and we have made free of our warnings and apprehensions.

"The movement has found impetus and force nevertheless, though not at all to our surprise. The Southern States hastened to establish an immigration office at New York and to set up a most capable and doubtless well-paid machinery of influx. Thus it happens that North Carolina has already received a considerable consignment of so-called Italians, has had a prompt experience of their peculiar eccentricities, and has found it expedient to shoot up one or two installments of the new population—a consequence which surprises us as little as the original fact of the "Italian" infusion. Our North Carolina friends, however, are only beginning to perceive the fruits of their enterprise. This government, be it known, is on the most cordial, not to say affectionate, terms with that of the Quirinal. Representations have reached Washington from Rome. Diplomatic retorts have been respectfully forwarded from this end, and now it is agreed that agents of the Italian monarch shall visit the scene of the shooting-up and oversee the prosecutions of the shooters.

"We know nothing certainly as to the facts and details of the incident. In a general way, we feel quite sure that the alleged "Italians" got what they deserved, and by the same token we make bold to prophesy more trouble for the survivors as the result of this foreign intervention. Our Carolina friends are a simple, unpretending, resolute, and indomitable folk. They have their own customs, ideas, and social institutions, handed down to them through more than two centuries of successive generations, and these no stranger may safely violate. It is beyond all reasonable doubt that the Italians committed very grave offense in order to provoke such harsh reprisals. It is as sure as the rising of the sun tomorrow that further irritation and invasion will only make things worse. Meanwhile, North Carolina has had its first experience of cheap white European labor, and it will be interesting to watch the progress of the evolution."

The shooting of the Italians, referred to by the Post, occurred at a camp on the South and Western railroad, in McDowell county, which road is being tunnelled and graded through the mountains of North Carolina. From all accounts, the two or three Italians who got shot were killed on account of a terrible mistake. The Italians made the mistake of mutinying and going off into the woods, loading up their guns, and getting their knives in shape to run the North Carolinians out of the camp. Tar Heels never did like to be run out of camp, and when the Italians made the attack they brought on international complications. Those who were not killed on account of their mistake were arrested and put in jail and the trial of nine Italians and of the North Carolinians who were involved has been going on in a more or less desultory way at Marion. The cases are in the Superior Court of McDowell county and it is before that tribunal that the Italian government asks that its representatives appear to see fair play. There is nothing at all unreasonable in that and we do not know of a North Carolinian who would object to throwing open his courts to all comers who want to see how a square deal is handed out.

THE MAGAZINES.

The Mid-Summer number of Harper's Magazine has been received. The mere mention of the same of that popular publication is sufficient indication of thorough excellence of the August number. The distinct literary tone of Harper's is refreshing and certainly its contents of story, poetry, miscellaneous matter, and editorial render it a favorite among readers. Harper's Magazine is always up to the standard and with its varied table of contents and handsome illustrations it is the reader's delight. It sells at 35 cents per copy and is sent a year for $4. Address Harper Bros., New York.

The August number of that great American magazine, the Atlantic Monthly, is on our round table. This one of our magazines aims at high literary merit and achieves it. It is not a newspaper bound in pamphlet form, but is a carefully compiled and well edited publication that will do to file away for all time. Its literary features make it the ideal home magazine and there is always entertainment and edification within its well filled pages. Among the varied table of contents Nicholas Worth continues his "Autobiography of a Southerner." The Atlantic Monthly is sent for $4 a year, and sells at 35 cents per copy. Address Houghton, Mifflin & Co., 4 Park Street, Boston.

WHERE DOES THE OTHER CROWD STAND?

The Charlotte Evening News remarks concerning the decision of the Federal Court at Chicago affecting Dowie:

"After all the second Elijah was and his hypocricy revealed to the eagle's wings. And so it is little surprising that the veil has been lifted and his hypocracy revealed to the public. He is now dethroned and humbled and justly so. It will have to be admitted that he was one of the most colossal fakes that ever manipulated in this country and was for a long while successful."

Suppose Dowie is an unmitigated fake, what can be said of the thousands of people who were simple enough to be taken in by his fakery (coined)? Then again, if Dowie is not a fake but is simply bughouse, what can be ejaculated about a lot of folks who become followers of a man who was loose in the upper story? It's a marvelous case any way you take it, isn't it? The man who started the report that "all the fools ain't dead yet" must have known what he was talking about.

DRUNKEN SOT WAS REDEEMED

Ketley Treatment Transformed Him From Hopeless Shiftless Being to Well to Do Man.

The Keeley Institute, Greensboro, N. C.:

Six years ago I was a drunken sot, without home, without friends, and with only the prospect of filling a drunkard's grave. I had been a confirmed drinker for ten years and was reaping the whirlwind of strong drink. If any one had asked who the most hopeless, shiftless man in town was, the finger of the public would have pointed out John B. Willis, the drunkard.

I have had delirium tremens six times, and have seen all of the devils and fiends of the lower pit. I have walked miles in the dark rainy nights trying to catch these leering, grinning devils, and I have been chased in return miles by the horrid hobgoblins and white caps, with all of them trying to kill me. I have felt the cold belly and slimy, creepy scales of the snakes as they crawled over my body, and have called on my people to help me fight them off, when there was nothing wrong, only I was full of the poison drink. I have felt the fiery pangs of the burning thirst, which I could not control, when I knew that the drink was killing me, yet the burning thirst would drive me back again to drink of the poison.

Six years ago I spent thirty days at Keeley Institute at Greensboro, N. C., the good people of my neighborhood sending me to take the treatment for drink. None believed that I would live to return, but I did and to-day I can say that I have never taken a drink since I took the Keeley Cure, six years ago. More than that, I can say that I have never wanted to take a drink since I took the treatment; I have never been sick; I have never lost a day from work.

The reasons why a man who is a drunkard should take the Keeley Cure:

First. Before I took it I was a hopeless, friendless, despised, drunken sot. Now I am a rspected man with home, a family and friends and some two thousand dollars worth of property.

Second. I was a miserable sufferer, suffering bodily and with mental pain and anguish. Now I am free from pain, free from the demon of despair, free from the awful firy thirst that consumes the man who drinks.

Third. If there is a treatment that will transform a man from what I was to what I am, I say that every one who wants to be free from the slave of drink should take the Keeley Cure.

Very respectfully
JOHN B. WILLIS.

—"The opinion held of William Jennings Bryan in New England is changing," said Haviland Stevenson, a Boston publisher, at the Raleigh last evening. "In 1896 and 1900 all the States in that section were against Mr. Bryan on account of the silver issue, but to-day conditions are different. That issue is dead, for the present at least. New England is for revision of the tariff, and if the Republicans 'stand pat' two years hence and the Democrats declare for revision, I believe Mr. Bryan could carry Massachusetts and Connecticut at least. I think what helped to change the attitude of New England people toward the Nebraskan was his attack on the big insurance companies, even before Mr. Lawson did so. Curtis Guild will be renominated for Governor by the Republicans this fall. The Democratic machine is against District Attorney Moran, who is trying to be a second Jerome, and it is uncertain whom it will select. Mr. Foss and Mr. Whitney will undoubtedly push the tariff issue to the fore, as usual."—Washington Post.

Taking No Chances.

A Glasgow steamer was laboring in a heavy sea, the waves sometimes sweeping her decks, but the officers had assured the passengers that there was no danger, and all seemed reasonably calm with the exception of one meek appearing little man, who every few minutes would approach an officer and anxiously inquire if he thought the ship would founder.

"No, I tell you!" one of them finally exclaimed, with impatience. "What is the matter with you? Look at those other people—they are not scared to death."

"Oh, I'm not scared," the man replied. "But, if the ship was going to founder, I wanted to know a little ahead of time."

"Oh! Wanted to tell your friends goodby and all that?"

"Well, not exactly," the man said hesitatingly. "The fact is, my mother-in-law is along with me, and if the ship was quite sure to sink I wanted to say a few things to her."—Harper's Weekly.

The Ancients and Medicine.

A roll of papyrus acquired by Dr. Ebers in the vicinity of Thebes, Egypt, in the winter of 1872, from an Arab who made ancient grave robbing a business, after investigation and translation was deposited in the library of the University of Leipsic. The script of this papyrus is hieratic. The date of it is said to be over 7,000 years ago. It is a comprehensive treatise on medicine. Diseases of the abdomen, the chest, the heart, the eyes, the ears, and so on, are carefully arranged and described in a manner that would command respect at the present day. For instance, of the heart the papyrus classifies the troubles as fatty degeneration, dilation, carditis, angina, or spasm; hypertrophy (enlargement), thrombosis (plugging) and dropsy. Of medicines over 700 different substances are enumerated, and they are prescribed in pills, in tablets, in capsules, in decoctions, powders, inhalations, lotions, ointments and plasters.

When Lowell Was Suspended.

A biography of James Russell Lowell says of a famous incident of the poet's college life: "Throughout his senior year his unexcused absences from recitations and chapel exercises increased in number until they reached a total that even now is startling to an academically trained reader. Finally, so the story runs, there came a characteristic ebullition during one of his infrequent appearances at evening prayers that brought matters to a head. Having been elected in the morning poet of his class, Lowell had spent the day in ambrosial jubilation. At prayers that evening, being still jubilant, he arose in his seat and bowed low to the right and to the left. Coming at the end of a long career of consistent negligence, this breach of decorum was not to be passed in silence." Lowell was as a consequence suspended.

SPIRITS TURPENTINE

—Salisbury Post: The Southern Railway has announced a voluntary raise of wages of its laborers at the transfer shed of from 15 to 25 per cent., the increase to be effective August 1. About a hundred men at the transfer shed will be effected by this raise.

—Raleigh Times: Mr. Arthur G. Corpening, chief clerk at the Yarborough House, has purchased Capt. S. G. Fry's interest in the Guilford-Benbow Hotel at Greensboro, and will leave Raleigh so as to give his entire attention to the Greensboro property. The deal, which has been on for some time, was closed late yesterday. Both hotels will remain open as heretofore.

—The Republicans of Harnett county held their convention in Lillington on Monday and nominated the following county ticket: Coroner, Duncan Darroch; surveyer, J. O. Kelly; treasurer, Rev. W. G. Turner; register of deeds, Moses McKoy; clerk of the court, John McLeod; sheriff, J. McKoy Byrd; representative, David Henry Senter, of Chalybeate Springs; county sommissioners, John A. Green, Cornelius Hodges and George E. Byrd. The Democratic convention will be held next Monday.

—Farmers of Rowan and other counties in Central North Carolina report the almost complete destruction to growing crops from the recent rains and storms. Mr. Luther Ritchie, a well-to-do farmer of Woodleaf, Rowan county, loses his entire crop of watermelons near the streams. These have been so swollen that crossing was impossible, and people have been forced to come by rail. Mr. Ritchie has a melon field now completely submerged. Lightning is also doing harm, Dr. G. A. Brown having lost five hogs by a single stroke.

—Rev. Liehenstein, a converted Jew, who has been doing missionary work among the Jews in St. Louis for a number of years, occupied the pulpits of three of the churches in High Point last Sunday, preaching in the morning, afternoon and at night. His discourses were very interesting, especially where he told of his experience in accepting the Christian religion 18 years ago. When he was converted he made the fact known to his family, who, according to the Jewish rules, immediately left him and he has not seen his wife and child since that time. At present he is engaged in building a church for his people in St. Louis.

—Lexington Special: Two negroes, Bob Murphy and Jim Bagly, workers with one of the Southern Railway's double tracking forces, had a shooting Sunday and Bagly lies low with a bullet in him. Murphy is in jail. In catching Murphy, who at once made tracks, Mr. Butler, foreman at the camp, did some of the cleanest police work on record. In two hours after the shooting, without aid other than a Winchester rifle, he had the negro in jail. Troubles like this have become common among the hundreds of negroes at work up and down the Southern between Greensboro and Spencer. Blind tiger liquor seems to be at the bottom of most of it. The wounded negro will hardly recover.

—In Randolph sohnty a few days ago, Goldsberry Dobey stabbed June Brewer and fatally wounded him. Dobey then escaped and is in Davie county at last report. The two men were with a threshing outfit and were engaged with the machine at Heg Williams' farm. Brewer made some remark about Dobey's carelessness in letting a hammer fall into the thresher, and without more ado Dobey leaped from the platform, where he was cutting bands and armed with the terrible band knife, slashed Brewer to the hollow. He then kicked him brutally and was in the act of spearing him with a pitchfork when bystanders interferred. Although Dobey remained in the community two days, no effort was made to apprehend him.

—The people of Spencer are somewhat exercised over the disappearance of a young man giving his name as Moore, from Sacramento, California. He arrived in Spencer several days ago and stopped at the Spencer Inn, insisting upon paying his board in advance. He was there but a short time before he left and went away, leaving his baggage open and clothing strewn over the floor. It was supposed that he had gone to work at the shops, but it was found out that he was not there and had not been at any time. He was known to have considerable money and there is fear of robbery. Moore looks much the gentleman and is about twenty-five years old. He came direct from Sacramento and was there during the great earthquake. There is not the slightest clue to his whereabouts and the case will be investigated.

—Salisbury Special to Raleigh Times, July 31: The solicitor of this district, W. C. Hammer, has been in Rowan and Charlotte recently seeing what else could be proved about the Lyerly murder besides what has been proved. His visit Sunday may have brought out something new, but there is no pulling it from him. Mr. Hammer will be here next Monday when the trial begins. It is supposed this will bring the largest crowd ever present at a Salisbury trial and it is not expected that the court house will nearly hold the people. There is a story coming from Barber, where the murder took place that on this night long before and after the Lyerlys were killed, that the dogs in the neighborhood set up a howl and that they kept it up nearly all night. This is probably what the lawyers call new matter and will not be introduced as evidence. It is also remembered that when Russell Sherrill was killed the dogs near him moaned pitifully for days afterwards.

—Raleigh Times, July 31: When the dining-room at the Yarborough House closes after supper this evening the negro waiters will go home and tomorrow morning, and regularly thereafter, white girls will attend to the wants of the guests. This announcement was made to-day. It has been known for some time that Mr. Howell Cobb was contemplating a change, but he had been waiting until he could secure the services of young women with training and experience. This afternoon a party of them will arrive from High Point and other towns in the western part of the State and the plan which has suceeded so admirably elsewhere will be duplicated in Raleigh. Other hotels in the State have faced the same difficulties which beset Mr. Cobb. There was no dependence to be placed in the colored help, and the black waiters quit when they pleased. It has been a source of constant annoyance to the management, but the future does not look so gloomy for the man behind the desk. Indeed, he is feeling glad. Moses Lord, the faithful head waiter, also co-operated in every way possible with Mr. Cobb, but he could not hold the help. He was strictly up against it. While good wages were paid the negroes were not regular and recently a number of them went to Atlantic City and other summer resorts in the hope of striking it rich.

Webster Beaten by a Woman.

In the somewhat famous case of Mrs. Bodgen's will, which was tried in the supreme court many years ago, Daniel Webster appeared as counselor for the appellant. Mrs. Greenough, wife of the Rev. William Greenough of West Newton, was a very self possessed witness. Notwithstanding Mr. Webster's repeated efforts to disconcert her she pursued the even tenor of her way until Webster, becoming quite fearful of the result, arose, apparently in great agitation, and, drawing out his large snuffbox, thrust his thumb and finger to the very bottom and, carrying a deep pinch to both nostrils, drew it up with gusto, and then, extracting from his pocket a very large handkerchief, he blew his nose with a report that rang distinct and loud through the crowded hall.

He then asked, "Mrs. Greenough, was Mrs. Bodgen a neat woman?"

"I cannot give you full information as to that, sir. She had one very dirty trick," replied the witness.

"What was that, ma'am?"

"She took snuff!"—Boston Herald.

Pathos In a Name.

A speaker at a Methodist conference told this story, which, he said, was related to him by Bishop Hartzell: "The bishop, while on a southern tour, met a darky who was the father of sixteen children, the youngest of whom was scarcely out of arms, and on asking him what the youngster's name was received this reply, 'Judas 'Scariot, sah.' 'You don't mean to tell me that that is really his baptismal name, do you?' asked the bishop. 'Indeed, I do, sah. Ain't dat a Script'ral name?' 'Yes; but do you know who Judas Iscariot was?' ''Course I does, sah; but doan de Scripture say it would have been better for Judas 'Scariot if he had never been borned?' 'Yes; but what has that to do with this poor little chap?' 'Dat's jest it, sah; dat's jest it. It would have been better for dis poor little chap if he had never been borned, and dat's why we calls him Judas 'Scariot.'"—Philadelphia Record.

Lloyd's Historic Bell.

The bell used to insure silence at Lloyd's, in London, when the arrival of an overdue vessel is announced to the anxious underwriters is of naval origin. It belonged to the Lutine, which was wrecked near the Zuyder Zee toward the end of the eighteenth century, when England was at war with Holland. As it was customary in those days to send bullion and specie by men-of-war, the Lutine carried a valuable consignment of specie, and the underwriters at Lloyd's were able to arrange with the Dutch government to salve the cargo and recoup themselves for their loss on insurance. Over £50,000 was recovered, and among other relics brought to shore was the Lutine's bell, to ring out good cheer for anxious underwriters who hear the safe arrival proclaimed by Lloyd's crier as silence follows the ringing of the bell.

John Bright's Reply.

On one occasion John Bright received a letter from a very bad writer, to which he replied:

Dear Sir—Many thanks for your letter of the 12th inst. I have no doubt but that it is a very good letter and that it contains matter as interesting as it is important; but, by the bye, if you should be in town in the course of a few days, would you mind just stepping in and reading it to me? Yours faithfully,

JOHN BRIGHT.

A Watch's Variation.

As to the sympathetic vagaries of watches a correspondent writes: "I discovered some years ago that it was the metal buckle of my braces that caused the irregularities of my own particular watch. I therefore now make a rule of putting my spectacle case on the inside of my watch pocket, thus cutting off the connection."

MARRIED AT WALLACE.

Miss Annie Lucile Lamb Bride of Mr. J. N. Southerland.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Wallace, N. C., Aug. 1.—One of the most tasteful, informal marriages of the season was solemnized in the Presbyterian church at Wallace this morning at ten o'clock. The contracting parties were Miss Annie Lucile Lamb and Mr. John Nicholas Southerland, Junior.

The church was simply but beautifully decorated with long, graceful sprays of ferns, masses of gorgeous cut flowers, and banks of richly colored pot-plants.

As the guests assembled, they were greeted by the soft notes of Tobani's "Coeurs et Fleurs" rendered by Miss Mattie Farrior Pickett on the violin, accompanied by Miss Melva Carr on the organ.

The bridal party entered to the melodious strains of Lohengrin's "Bridal Chorus," by Miss Carr. First came Rev. R. Murphy Williams, of Greensboro, down the right aisle, and Rev. W. P. M. Currie, of Wallace, down the left. The ministers were followed by the four ushers, two on either side, Mr. Paul Baker Bell, of Wilmington; Mr. Jesse B. Southerland, of Wallace; Mr. W. DeLeon Wells, of Wallace, and Mr. Henry Southerland, of Mt. Olive, a brother of the groom. Then came the bride attired in a handsome travelling suit of dark blue silk, having the collar clasped with a lovely diamond and pearl brooch, the gift of the groom, and carrying a large bouquet of Lilies of the Valley. She was accompanied by the dame of honor, her sister, Mrs. James T. Barden, of Warsaw, who wore a richly trimmed costume of white silk, and carried an elaborate bouquet of bride's roses and ferns. Down the opposite aisle came the groom with the best man, Mr. Charlie Southerland, of Mt. Olive, also a brother of the groom.

The short but impressive ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Williams, assisted by the Rev. Mr. Currie. The party left the church as Miss Carr played Mendelssohn's Wedding March.

The bride is a most lovable young lady, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Edward Lamb, of Wallace, and the groom, a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Southerland, of Kenansville, is a successful business man of Wilmington.

The bride gave a reception to her friends at her home Tuesday evening, which was thoroughly enjoyed by all present. A most elegant supper was served just before the departure of the guests. The out of town guests were: Miss Susie McGee, of Raleigh, Miss Grace Southerland, of Goldsboro, Miss Kelly and Miss Annie Kelly, of Wilmington, Miss Carroll and Miss Havens Carroll, of Sampson, Miss Lucy Williams, of Warsaw; Miss Mattie Pickett, Miss Annie May Southerland, and Miss Mary Southerland, of Kenansville, and Miss Melva Carr, of Rose Hill; Mr. Charlie Southerland and Mr. Henry Southerland, of Mt. Olive, Mr. Lawrence Southerland, of Kenansville, Mr. J. Grover Carroll, of Sampson; Mr. Paul Baker Bell, of Wilmington, and Mr. and Mrs. James T. Barden, of Warsaw. Besides these, numerous friends from Wallace were present at the reception.

The popularity of the couple was strongly attested by the numerous valuable gifts which were received. It is the hearty wish of all the friends of these young people that they may enjoy a long and happy wedded life.

—On account of the critical illness of a member of the circle, the excursion by the circle of Mrs. Allen and Mrs. W. A. McGowan to Carolina Beach to-day has been indefinitely postponed.

JUNK DEALERS' CASES.

Preliminary Trial Yesterday Before "Chief" Justice Martin Newmann

The preliminary trial of B. and M. May, junk dealers near Front and Dock streets, charged with receiving stolen goods knowing them to have been stolen, took place yesterday afternoon before Justice of the Peace Martin Newmann to whom the case was transferred upon affidavit of removal from Justice Furlong. Hon. Jno. D. Bellamy and Herbert McClammy, Esq., appeared as counsel for the defendants and a large number of witnesses were examined, among them being Mr. Thos. Torpy and others of the Atlantic Coast Line, who identified the property recovered in the place of defendants and testified as to the value of the same.

After a full hearing and argument of counsel, the court reserved its decision until 10 o'clock this morning. A strong point made for the defence was an admisison by Constable Savage that at least as far as a part of the property was concerned, he had asked the Mays to buy it so that he could identify the negroes who had sold it.

SENTENCE RHYTHM.

Idiosyncrasies of Writers and Speakers In This Respect.

All experienced writers and speakers manifest a personal peculiarity in the rhythm of their sentences. The writer indicates this by the recurrent lengths of his sentences and the speaker by his interpretation. Most of us are unaware of the fact that we have a normal length of sentences and that we retain this length when possible. Recent investigations have discovered this fact, and the evidence is indisputable. The successive sentences admit of variations, but the average length of sentences of any ordinary author is claimed to be ascertainable from the reading of any 500 lines of his typical works.

In English prose and poetry the thought is of the most importance and the form of expression is but secondary. In chanting and in music the thought is subordinated to the form, and in these forms of expression the rhythm is much more prominent than in prose or poetry. It is aesthetically displeasing to have too much made of rhythm in reading prose and poetry, but the highest manifestations of art are present when the rhythmical form is used to express the thought. We do not like to have that which is most important subordinated to the less important, but our aesthetic natures crave rhythm, and when the best expression of thought coincides with the production of rhythm we respond at once with enthusiastic approval.—Walter Dill Scott in Talent.

Trading In Your Own Town.

A right that belongs to every citizen is the privilege of spending his earnings in whatever manner and where he wishes as long as he keeps within the law. No one will dispute the farmer's claim that he can send his money to any place that he wishes and buy goods he needs wherever he wants to. But there is an economic side of the question that should not be overlooked, says D. M. Carr in Home Trade Advocate. The resident of a community should be active in furthering the interests of the place he calls home. He is working contrarily to his own good when he sends his money to the distant city for supplies he knows can be secured in his home town. The dollar sent away goes out of circulation and ceases to be a factor in the building up of the community from which it is sent.

How Snakes Move and Climb.

The vertebrae of a snake are fitted together by a kind of ball and socket articulation, which, however, is capable of only lateral or side to side motion. A snake moves by propelling himself on the points of his scales, which, to him, answer the purpose of ribs. A snake does not climb a tree or a bush by coiling around it, as most people who have not investigated the matter believe, but by balancing himself very evenly and holding on with the points and edges of his scales. A snake on a pane of glass or other polished surface where the scales cannot take hold is almost perfectly helpless.

True In Both Cases.

"There are many stars that are never seen," said the astronomer reflectively.

"Yes, and there are a lot that never ought to be seen, too," returned the theatrical manager, with some emphasis.

It was two days later before the astronomer finally got it through his head that the theatrical manager was not a plain, everyday idiot.

AWFUL TRAGEDY AT BESSEMER CITY

Bridegroom Murdered Within an Hour After He Had Led Bride to Altar.

RIDDLED WITH FIVE BULLETS

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Raleigh, N. C., August 1.—A special from Charlotte, N. C., to the Evening Times says:

A telephone message from Bessemer City states that Wm. Brown, a bridegroom of an hour, was shot and killed by John M. Kincaid at the depot there this morning.

Brown was married at 8 o'clock to Miss Bettie Perry, a Bessemer City girl. They were escorted to the depot by a number of friends, and intended going to Danville where the honeymoon was to have been spent. As soon as the bridal party arrived at the depot Kincaid, who was waiting there, called Brown aside and walked with him to a near-by room. A moment later five pistol shots rang out. A number of people rushed to the room and found Brown dead, with Kincaid standing by holding a pistol. Death was instantaneous.

Kincaid gave himself us to the authorities. It is said that Brown was to have married Kincaid's sister, whom, it is alleged, he betrayed some months ago. Both men worked in the cotton mills there. Kincaid has a wife and three children. His father is a farmer and lives near Bessemer City.

COUNTER ASSASSINATIONS.

Black Hundred Will Take Life for Life In Russia.

(By Cable to The Morning Star.)

St. Petersburg, August 2.—The Liberals are planning a demonstration here and at Moscow for the funeral of M. Herzenstein, a member of the outlawed Parliament, in which he was a prominent leader of the constitutional Democrats, who was assassinated at his country home near Terioki, Finland, by men in the pay of the Black Hundred.

Given the present temper of the people, these demonstrations may result in collisions and bloodshed such as marked the interment of Prince Troubetskoy. The Liberals have applied for permission to transport Herzenstein's body in state through St. Petersburg, from the Finnish to the Moscow railroad stations. This has not yet been granted.

The constitutional Democrats ascribe the murder of Herzenstein to the "Counter Terrorist League," otherwise known as the "Black Hundred," with the alleged intention of exacting from the Liberal ranks life for a life for the victims of the terrorists. Herzenstein is said to have been selected in vengeance for the death of Gen. Kozlov, of the headquarters staff, who was murdered in the park at Peterhof on July 14.

Two persons suspected of complicity in the murder and a gendarme of Terioki, who repeatedly was seen in their company, have been arrested.

WILL NOMINATE MR. HEARST.

New York Democrats in Convention Will Meet September.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

New York, August 1.—The Democratic State Committee to-day voted to hold the next State convention at Buffalo on September 25.

Before the meeting of the committee, William J. Conners, of Buffalo, said that the meeting of the Independence League here yesterday would effect William R. Hearst's chances for the gubernatorial nomination by the regular State convention. "We will go ahead and nominate Hearst anyhow," said Mr. Connors. "Nothing can prevent Hearst's nomination."

Norman E. Mack of Buffalo, member of the Democratic National Committee of this State, spoke in the same way.

The Hearst men were jubiliant over the selection of Buffalo as the place for holding the convention. The programme for the meeting was arranged at a conference attended by Norman E. Mack, State Senator Patrick H. Carren, Charles F. Muruphy, leader of Tammany Hall, and Cord Meyer, chairman of the State committee.

Senator McCarren said: "While it is a fact that we have agreed to hold the convention in Buffalo, yet it is must not be construed to mean that I have changed in any manner with regard to Mr. Hearst and his political party."

Mr. Murphy, who was attending beside McCarren said: "Nevertheless, we are going to meet in Buffalo."

TRIED TO DO UMPIRE DIRT.

Men Were Hired to Swear He Gambled on Ball Game.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Chicago, August 1.—At a meeting of the board of directors of the American Base Ball Association to-day, called to investigate charges against Clarence B. Owens, of having placed bets on games in which he officiated as umpire, Owens appeared in his own behalf, denying the charges. Mr. Owens' attorney, M. H. Boutell, Esq., declared that he was prepared to show that each of the affidavits offered in evidence was secured by the payment of money and that one, if not all, of them, was made under a fictitious name. There was no evidence against Owens other than the affidavits offered. Complete exoneration for Owens came on the conclusion of the meeting.

SECRETARY ROOT AT RIO JANEIRO

Defines in Speech Aims and Purposes of Pan-American Conference—No Political Questions Involved.

Rio De Janeiro, July 31.—The following speech was delivered by Secretary Root before the Pan-American Congress to-day:

"I bring from my own country a special greeting to our older sisters in the civilization of America. Unlike as we are in many respects, we are alike in this, that we are all engaged under new conditions, free from the traditional forms and limitations of the old world, in working out the same problem of popular self-government. This is a difficult and laborious task for each of us. Not in one generation, nor in one century, can the effective control of a superior sovereign, so long deemed necessary to government, be rejected and effective self control by the governed perfected in its place.

"To reach that goal toward which we are pressing forward, the governing of the multitude, we must first acquire the knowledge that comes from universal education, the wisdom which follows practical experience, that personal independence and self-respect befitting men who acknowledge no superior, self control to replace that external control whom democracy rejects, respect of the law, and obedience to the lawful expressions of the public will.

"Not America alone, but the whole civilized world is swinging away from the old governmental moorings and entrusting the fate of civilization to the capacity of the popular mass to govern. By this pathway mankind is travelling whithersoever it leads, and upon the success of this great undertaking the hope of humanity depends.

"Nor can we fail to see that the world is making substantial progress toward more perfect popular self-government. Nowhere is this progress more marked than in Latin-America. Out of the wreck of Indian fighting, race conflicts and civil wars, strong and stable governments have arisen. Peaceful succession in accord with the peoples' will has replaced the forcible seizure of power permitted by the peoples' indifference. Loyalty to country, its peace, dignity and honor have risen above the partisanship of individual eaders. The rule of law supersedes the rule of man. Property is respected, the fruits of enterprise are secure, individual liberty is respected, continuous public policies are followed, and the national faith is held sacred.

"I understand it to be the function of this conference that not one but all of our country shall benefit the other; that there is not one that can not receive benefits from the other; that there is not one that will not gain by the prosperity, peace and happiness of all.

"According to the programme there is no great, no impressive, single thing to be done by you. No political questions are to be discussed; no controversies are to be settled and no judgment is to be passed upon the conduct of any states; but many subjects are to be considered which afford the possibility of removing the barriers to intercourse and ascertaining, at common benefit, the advances that have been made by each nation in knowledge, experience, enterprise and the solution of difficult questions of government.

"You are to deal with the ethical standards of perfecting knowledge of each other; of doing away with misconception and misunderstanding, and the resultant prejudices that are such fruitful sources of controversy."

THE COTTON MARKETS.

New York, August 1.—The cotton market was quiet to-day with fluctuations narrow and the close steady at a net advance of 1 to 3 points. Sales were estimated at 50,000 bales.

The market opened quiet at a decline of 1 point to an advance of 1 point, and during the morning sold off to a net decline of about 2 to 4 points under a little local bear pressure and scattering liquidation which may have been inspired by further evidence that the August report Friday would show very little deterioration, which was offered by the report of a leading trade paper showing a deterioration for the month of only 1 per cent., and by the report of three other private authorities showing a deterioration of one-half per cent. This names three private condition reports in percentages each of which has shown a deterioration in condition for the month of 1 per cent. or a little over, and as considered by the local trade to point to an August bureau of about 81 to 82 per cent. At the decline there was a little scattered covering and in the afternoon some of the room traders started betting, with the idea probably of running in the scattering shorts. Prices rallied on this demand to a net advance of about 1 to 4 points and closed at practically the top. There was nothing of importance in the weather news. Large English spot sales attracted some attention, but the Southwestern movement is showing a larger percentage of the new crop.

Estimated receipts of cotton at the ports to-day 5,810 bales against 831 last week and 10,982 last year. For the week 35,000 bales against 29,492 last week and 73,620 last year. To-day's receipts at New Orleans 241 bales against 4,0004 last year, and at Houston 416 bales against 5,139 last year.

Late Beginning.

Sir Walter Scott began to write his celebrated novels at forty. Milton began "Paradise Lost" at fifty. When "East Lynne" appeared its author, Mrs. Henry Wood, was forty-five. Cromwell was forty-one when he began his public career. The year of the hegira was the fifty-third of Mohammed, and Mariborough reached his independent command at the same age. In spiritual examples Abraham was seventy-five when called out of Charan, and Moses was eighty when he stood before Pharaoh as the champion of Israel.

They Were All Right.

He was a typical backwoods farmer. His first visit to a city restaurant, however, had taken away none of the appetite he had at home, where everything was placed in large dishes on the center of the table and each one helped himself. The waiter had piled the food around the plate in the customary little dishes, which the farmer cleaned up in turn. Settling back in his chair, he hailed the passing waiter:

"Hey, there, young man! Your samples are all right. Bring on the rest of the stuff."—Judge.

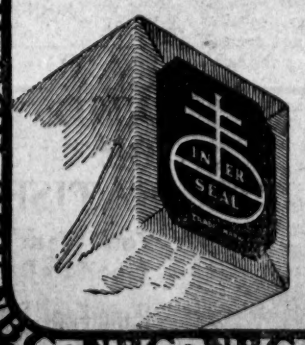
Where Baking Begins Right

The baking of the NATIONAL BISCUIT COMPANY begins with right material, and every step thereafter through the whole process of baking is right. There is not one point of quality that care, skill and modern bakeries could make better. It is perfection itself—through and through.



It Ends Right

when it reaches your table untouched by strange hands, untainted by odors. The quality, oven-flavor and freshness are preserved in a dust and moisture proof package, distinguished by the trade mark here shown. It always appears in red and white on each end of the package and warrants the perfect condition of the contents. For example try packages of GRAHAM CRACKERS—possessing the rich, nutty flavor of graham flour—unlike any graham crackers you ever tasted.

FROTANA—a temptingly delicious union of biscuit and fruit—the newest delicacy of the National Biscuit Company.

DIVORCE SEEKER IS A PERJURER

Augustus Hartje Exposed by Woman Who Pointed Him Out in Court.

HE HAD TOLD ANOTHER TALE

Alleged Incriminating Letters of Mrs. Hartje Were Never Kept in Trunk Alleged to Have Been Broken Open.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Pittsburg, Pa., August 1.—Probably the most sensational incidents and testimony in the Hartje divorce case in the five weeks it has been running were brought out to-day when Alma Ross, the mysterious "blonde" who kept a rooming house, swore that Augustus Hartje and Josephine Wright frequently met at the Ross woman's house; that the Wright woman brought him there and introduced him and said that the house at which she had been living was too public and too close to the Hartje warehouse. The Ross woman said Hartje paid Josephine Wright's room rent thereafter. When the witness pointed out Hartje in the court room Hartje smiled.

Hartje, several days ago testified that he did not know Josephine Wright and never visited her. The Wright woman testified that she did not know Hartje.

The issue as to the disputed love letters in the Hartje divorce case was defined to-day when "Tom" Madine, the coachman who is named as the co-respondent in the case, testified that the letters which the private detectives said were takn from his trunk never were in that receptacle.

Mrs. Hartje testified that she wrote only two letters to Wagner, and denied telling Blanche Ashby what testimony she should give. Detectives H. G. Staubb and John A. Anderson, who testified that they took the famous "love letters" from "Tom" Madine's trunk, were arrested at the court house on information sworn out by Madine before Alderman F. M. King, charging them with entering a building with intent to commit a felony and larceny. They were released on bonds of $2,000 each, furnished by Edward Hartje, a brother of Augustus Hartje.

The hearings of Augustus Hartje, J. L. Welshons and Clifford Hooe, on a charge of conspiracy growing out of the divorce case, was set for to-day, but District Attorney Robb again asked a postponement and Aldtrman King decided to wait until after the divorce case is concluded.

A message received at Providence, R. I., yesterday says the schooner J. Manchester Haynes, of Boston, bound from Charleston, S. C., for Fore River, Mass., with lumber, ran ashore on Goat Island on Tuesday. She was, however, leaking so badly that it was thought wise to beach her.

ALARMING RUMORS STIR ST. PETERSBURG

(By Cable to The Morning Star.)

Helsingford, August 1.—The fighting for possession of the fortifications here was resumed this morning, and firing was in progress until a late hour to-night. The result is not definitely known. The latest reports, however, state that the mutineers have surrendered after having had their ammunition destroyed by an explosion. The white flag has been hoisted on one of the islands, but it is premature to say whether the revolutionaries there have surrendered or not. In any event, however, the fire from the battleship Slava and another warship undoubtedly had its effect.

Except in the vicinity of the fort the town presents practically a normal appearance. During the evening large crowds assembled on the quays listening to the cannonade and watching the dense columns of smoke rising from the islands. All traffic in the harbor has been prohibited.

After nightfall the governor issued an order closing all public houses. Regular traffic has been resumed with St. Petersburg. The railroad bridge between Riihimaki and Ryttylae, which was blown up by members of the "Red Guard," having been repaired. Prior to the blowing up of this bridge members of the "Red Guard" seized the Fredericksberg station and stopped the St. Petersburg mail train.

During the afternoon a boat put out from Sveaborg and was bombarded. The occupants, who were members of the "Red Guard," were taken into custody.

The telegraph building here has been ruined and the barracks and cathedral have been badly damaged by the fire of the 11-inch guns. The numbers of wounded and killed have probably been over estimated.

There was a panic all day long yesterday among the Summer residents on the islands of the Archipelago, owing to the fall of stray bullets and shells, which caused a number of casualties, both on the islands and in the city. A man sitting on the veranda of the yacht club was mortally wounded and a servant girl was killed.

Another Mutiny.

Sveaborg, August 1.—It is reported here that the Russian flotilla stationed at Hango, Finland, has mutinied, imprisoned the officers and sailed to the assistance of the mutineers.

Wild Rumors at St. Petersburg.

St. Petersburg, August 2 (12:15 A. M.).—St. Petersburg is anxiously awaiting news of the outcome of yesterday's battle between the mutineers and the government forces at Sveaborg. No definite information has been received here owing to the damage done to the wires. The advices received by the government by wireless telegraph have not been divulged.

The utmost importance is attached to the conduct of the fleet. According to semi-official intimation, the crews of these vessels are still under the control of their officers, but private advices say that a portion of the crews have been confined below decks for fear of mutiny.

There was a rumor in circulation here to-night that four of the ships of the Baltic squadron were in complete mutiny and roaming at large in the Gulf of Finland, and that the commandant at Cronstadt had been notified to be prepared for an attack by these vessels. It is worthy of note that a dispatch to an official agency from Helsingford announcing the arrival of the fleet off Sveaborg and the fact that it opened fire, does not mention what it opened fire against.

Vice Admiral Birileff, presumably, has gone to Helsingford to assume personal command of the fleet, as it now develops that Grand Duke Alexander Michaelovitch, the Emperor's brother, is not with the fleet, as previously reported.

The most anxiety still prevails with the regard to a possible uprising at Cronstadt and the general spread of the revolution through the entire naval establishment. A personal visit by a correspondent of the Associated Press to Cronstadt, however, shows that the authorities there received timely warning of the events at Sveaborg and nipped a possible revolt in the bud.

Yesterday morning the 1,500 sailors, composing the Seventh Equipage, quartered at Cronstadt, whose loyalty had been distrusted, found themselves under arrest. The streets of Cronstadt are swarming with troops of the loyal guard.

The Rech in an editorial to-day does not conceal its gratification at the quick march of events, saying:

"Before the government could even induce a few men enjoying a measure of public confidence to countersign its promises of liberal reforms, the first blow has fallen, not delivered by the peasants or workmen, but by the army, whose loyalty the premier was vaunting."

The Liberals in general believe that the government will now be forced to discard all pretense of reform and that a military dictatorship is immdiately ahead.

Warsaw, August 1.—It is stated here that in view of the recent outrages in and around Warsaw, the increased energy of the revolutionaries and the inadequate measures at present in force, the governor general has informed the government at St. Petersburg in emphatic terms that he will resign unless he is permitted to establish a strict state of siege. It is probable that the government will accept his resignation, as a continuation of the present state of affairs is impossible.

BOUGHT FUTURES FOR TWO FRIENDS

Secretary Cheatham, of Southern Cotton Association Puts Up that Defense.

CHARGE IS BEING PROBED

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Atlanta, Ga., August 1.—Before the committee of investigation named by President Harvie Jordan, to hear evidence that certain officers of the association owned an interest in a well-known brokerage concern and had been speculating in cotton futures, Representative Anderson, of Chatham county, repeated the charges made by him on the floor of the house last week. He charged that Richard Cheatham, secretary of the association, speculated in cotton futures, carrying the accounts in the names of Mike O'Grady and P. A. Lee. Mr. Anderson also charged that Arthur A. Fairchild, who appears as the manager of the bureau of publicity of the association, owned one-eighth of the stock of the Piedmont Brokerage Company, a concern which makes a specialty of cotton futures. To support these charges, Mr. Anderson submitted a number of affidavits and declared that an order from Mr. Cheatham on certain brokers would bring forth further evidence in proof of the charges.

Mr. Cheatham submitted in his defense a statement, in which he declared: "I do not at the present time nor have I directly or indirectly in any manner, own any part of or interest in a bucket shop or wire gambling house. I have never speculated in cotton futures for my own personal gain."

Mr. O'Grady, of Chattanooga, was on hand to substantiate the statement of Mr. Cheatham that the "O'Grady account" was handled for him by Mr. Cheatham, merely as a personal act of friendship. Mr. Cheatham refused to reveal the identity of P. A. Lee, in whose name the other account was carried.

Instead of having in custody an American bigamist known as "Lord Douglass," wanted by the authorities of many States, as was first supposed, the Portland, Me., police yesterday arrested Lord Sholto Douglass, third son of the late Marquis of Queensberry. He took it good humoredly.

The Virginia Corporation commission has issued an order to the railways in Virginia to appear before it and show why the 2 cents rate should not be enforced. The hearing of the express companies set for yesterday has been postponed. The Western Union and Postal Telegraph Companies filed papers showing cause why they should not adopt the flat 25 cent rate.

RAILROAD RATE LAW CATCHES RAILROADS

Goes Into Effect Too Quickly to Give Opportunity to Carriers to Comply With Its Provisions. Begging for Time.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Washington, August 1.—After a further conference of two hours and a half to-day, the railroad officials who have been discussing with the Interstate Commerce Commission the interpretation and enforcement of the new railroad rate law, adjourned their meeting.

On behalf of the commission, Chairman Martin A. Knapp, made the following statement concerning the work and results of the conference:

"The railway traffic officials who have been in conference with the Interstate Commerce Commission yesterday and to-day were committees representing the Western Association roads west of Chicago, and the Southern Association roads south of the Ohio and Potomac Rivers and east of the Mississippi. They submitted three general propositions in the nature of requests relating to the publication and filing of tariffs and kindred matters under the amended law, which takes effect on the 28th of August.

"First. That a longer time is necessary than will intervene before the new law takes effect to prepare and print rate schedules in conformity with the amended statute. Incidentally they asked to be allowed to publish their tariffs in the various stations by placing copies in the custody of an agent, and posting a notice that they are open to inspection by any person who desires to consult them.

"Second. That the requirement of thirty days' notice of change in rate be modified so as to permit changes in export and import rates on such short notice as may be necessary to meet the competition of foreign carriers.

"Third. That in the case of joint traffics, which tr usually issued by the initial carrier, that the terminal charges as for storage, switching, be published and filed by the delivering roads.

"It was understood by those present and stated distinctly by the commission that it has no discretion under the present law, and consequently can make no order in regard to any of the matters discussed until the new law takes effect. Moreover, as only three members of the commission were present, which is less than a majority as the commission will be constituted under the new law, it was announced that no opinion would be expressed or ruling made until the questions were considered by the entire commission. It was, however, intimated by the commissioners present that the carriers should use their best efforts to prepare tariffs in compliance with the law and if further time became necessary it would probably be allowed. It was also suggested that a new committee or sub-committee be appointed by the carriers, which should represent the roads generally through the country for further conference with the commission from time to time as might be desired, with the view to co-operation with them in aid of uniformity of method and practice."

GOVERNOR CUMMINS WHIPPED OPPOSITION

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Des Moines, Ia., Aug. 1.—Gov. Albert B. Cummins to-day was nominated for re-election by the Republican State convention on the first ballot in a harmonious session that belied all prognostications of a split. A full State ticket was named, most of the candidates being nominated by acclamation. All strife appeared to have died from the ranks of the opposing factions of Iowa Republicans. The first ballot for Lieutenant Governor resulted: Warren Garst, 917 1-3; L. B. Raymond, 722 2-3. There was no "row."

Governor Cummins, as he asserted allalong had a majority of the dele- all along and a majority of the dele- Central Committee in adding to the temporary organization, some Perkins delegates did not interfere with Cummins' control of the situation. The governor's friends were dominant in the majority of the district caucuses held this morning and consequently controlled not only the committee on gates, and the action of the State credentials, but secured the adoption of those submitted to the committee on platform. The action of the State Central Committee in putting 88 of the contesting Perkins delegates on the temporary roll was not sustained by the committee on credentials, who reported in favor of seating only 13 of them.

After Governor Cummins was renominated, a committee escorted him to the platform. He made a short speech in which he said the thing nearest to his heart was the Republican party.

"We are uncompromisingly in favor of the American system of protection. Duties on foreign imports should not be levied for revenue only, but should be so adjusted as to promote our domestic interests, enlarge our foreign markets, secure remunerative prices for the products of our factories and farms and maintain a superior scale of wages and standard of living for American labor.

"Wise and unselfish tariff law maintained for our general welfare, equally opposed to foreign control and domestic monopoly, are essential to our commercial and industrial prosperity. We believe that all inequalities in the tariff schedules which inevitably arise from changing industrial and commercial conditions should be adjusted from time to time, and condemning without reserve all assaults upon the protective system, we favor such reasonable and timely changes as will keep the tariff in harmony with our industrial and commercial progress.

"We favor the reciprocity inaugurated by Blaine, advocated by McKinley and Roosevelt, and as recognized in Republican platforms and legislation."
